POSITION
DESCRIPTION

The Tax Compliance Representative (TCR) is an entry-level classification. The TCR is trained in tax laws, rules and regulations, employment tax enforcement activities, unemployment/disability overpayment provisions, outreach and/or advisory assignments, status and wage provisions of the California Unemployment Insurance Code (CUIC). The TCR learns methods to contact and interview debtors in order to effect the collection of overpayments and delinquent accounts. The TCR evaluates and determines the debtor's financial status and ability to pay. TCRs are responsible for taking voluntary and involuntary collection actions to obtain compliance with the CUIC. TCRs learn skip-tracing techniques, locate and contact individuals and businesses in an effort to collect unemployment/disability overpayments or employment taxes. TCRs make field calls to enforce the provisions of the CUIC and to conduct personalized consultations. The TCR advises and educates businesses on reporting and payment requirements, as well as specific payroll tax issues affecting them and determines the taxability of payments and/or services under the provisions of the CUIC. The TCR prepares, organizes, and conducts education and outreach activities for both external and internal customers.

GENERAL INFORMATION

If you meet the requirements stated on this bulletin, you may take this examination, which is competitive. Possession of the entrance requirements does not assure a place on the eligible list. Your performance in the examination described on this bulletin will be compared with the performance of the others who take this test, and all candidates who pass will be ranked according to their scores.

The State Personnel Board reserves the right to revise the examination plan to better meet the needs of the service if the circumstances under which this examination was planned change. Such revision will be in accordance with civil service laws and rules and all competitors will be notified.

Eligible Lists: Eligible lists established by competitive examination, regardless of date, must be used in the following order: 1) sub-divisional promotional, 2) departmental promotional, 3) multidepartmental promotional, 4) servicewide promotional, 5) open eligible list. When there are two lists of the same kind, the older must be used first. Eligible lists will expire in one to four years unless otherwise stated on this bulletin. In the case of continuous testing examinations, names are merged into the appropriate eligible list in order of final test scores (except as modified by veterans preference credits) regardless of the date of the test and the resulting eligible lists will be used only to fill vacancies in the area shown on the bulletin.

General Qualifications: Candidates must possess essential personal qualifications including integrity, initiative, dependability, good judgment, and ability to work cooperatively with others, and a state of health consistent with the ability to perform the assigned duties of the class.

Veterans Preference: California law limits the granting of veterans' preference points in open entrance examinations and open non-promotional examinations. Credits in open entrance examinations is granted as follows: 10 points for veterans, widows, or widowers of veterans, and spouses of 100 percent disabled veterans; and 15 points for disabled veterans. Credit in open non-promotional examinations is granted as follows: Five points for veterans; and 10 points for disabled veterans. Directions for applying for veterans' preference are on the Veterans' Preference Application which is available from the State Personnel Board office, written test proctors, and the Department of Veterans Affairs, P.O. Box 1559, Sacramento, CA 95807.
